Race Schedules will be posted on the Official Notice Board. Schedules may be posted online if possible. A copy of the first series of Races will be provided to Team Captains at Registration. Where possible, those teams who will be sailing the first race in a flight of boats will be informed before the first day of racing.

All information will also be posted on the official noticeboard on the BUSA website.

Event Reminders

- Competitors are reminded that as well as Buoyancy Aids, Wetsuits or Drysuits will be required.
- Sailing is a non-contact sport where damage to people, boats and equipment is generally avoidable. Teams notice is drawn to the relevant Appendix of the Notice of Race which explains the system for charging for any damage to boats and equipment
- Competitors are reminded that the Racing Rules of Sailing and the BUSA Code of Conduct apply during their entire involvement with the event; including their travel to and from the venue and at social events.

- It is the responsibility of either the individual or institution to ensure that all entrants have appropriate insurance in order to compete. BUSA and BUCS do not insure any competitor for any of their events.
- The last team to sail a boat at the end of the day shall be responsible for taking the boat to the boat park, rolling the sails as directed, covering the boat and tying it down securely, all to the satisfaction of the person responsible for the boats. Failure to do so may be referred to the Protest Committee or the BUSA Technical Delegates for further action.
