8. Risk Statement

8.1. Rule 4 of the Racing Rules of Sailing states: "The responsibility for a boat's decision to participate in a race or to continue racing is hers alone."

Sailing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore inherently involves an element of risk. By taking part in the event, each competitor agrees and acknowledges that:

8.1.1. They are aware of the inherent element of risk involved in the sport and accept responsibility for the exposure of themselves, their crew and their boat to such inherent risk whilst taking part in the event;

8.1.2. They are responsible for the safety of themselves, their crew, their boat and their other property whether afloat or ashore;

8.1.3. They accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by their own actions or omissions;

8.1.4. Their boat is in good order, equipped to sail in the event and they are fit to participate;

8.1.5. The provision of a race management team, patrol boats and other officials and volunteers by the event organiser does not relieve them of their own responsibilities;

8.1.6. The provision of patrol boat cover is limited to such assistance, particularly in extreme weather conditions, as can be practically provided in the circumstances.

8.1.7. It is their responsibility to familiarise themselves with any risks specific to this venue or this event drawn to their attention in any rules and information produced for the venue or event and to attend any safety briefing held for the event.

9. Prizes

9.1. Prizes will be awarded at the discretion of the organising authority.

10. Cancellation

10.1. The organising authority reserves the right to cancel the event. The entry fee and any deposits will be refunded less any unavoidable costs.

11. Rights to use Name and Likeness

11.1. By participating or spectating in this event, competitors & spectators automatically grant to the organising authority, the venue/s, event sponsors and the sailing club's sponsors the right in perpetuity to make use and show at their discretion any photography, audio and video recordings and other reproductions of them made throughout the event from the time of their arrival until their final departure, without compensation.

12. Privacy Statement

12.1. The personal information you provide to the organising authority will be used to facilitate your participation in the event. If you have agreed to be bound by the Racing Rules of Sailing and the other rules that govern the event (the rules), the legal basis for processing that personal information is contract. If you are not bound by the rules, the legal basis for processing that personal information is legitimate interest. Your personal information will be stored and used in accordance with the organising authority's privacy policy. When required by the rules, personal information may be shared with the RYA, your national authority and/or World Sailing. The results of the event and the outcome of any hearing or appeal may be published.
